KPFK SWITCHBOARD
(818) 985-2711
9 AM to 5 PM, Mon. - Fri.

Our 10 day fund drive in November was a great success. We raised $146,000 in pledges and an additional $34,000 in an off-air direct mail campaign we initiated prior to the November drive. The on-air fund drive was well coordinated and well organized and there are a number of people to be commended for their efforts. Fund drive coordinator Pamela Burton did an outstanding job, along with the KPFK staff and volunteers who donated their time and energy to make this effort a success. We look forward to continuing to improve the services we are providing you in the coming year, and thank you once again for your support. If you have received your bill and you have not yet sent in your payment, please do it today. We are counting on you to pay your pledge and fulfill that commitment you made during our fund drive. Once again, we thank you.

On November 24th, the FCC ruled on a petition to reconsider its decision of April 16th of this year which made sweeping changes in broadcast guidelines regarding sensitive language. The FCC ruling basically reaffirmed the April 16th decision in principle, but the definition of what is indecent still continues to be as vague and confused as it was before.

The FCC in addition, readopted the notion that the standard under which these guideline would be enforced would be based on a broad national standard determined by their assumption or definition of an average listening adult. Each FCC member would draw upon his/her experience in broadcasting to make that determination. Further, the FCC said that it was reasonable to assume that parents could control the listening habits of their children between 12am-6am, but it was not very clear what in fact could be broadcast between those times.

The FCC did reiterate that they had not imposed any sanctions against the three licensee because each licensee had adhered to the then-current standards. However, they did say that those programs cited, would now be held actionable. Whether or not our slate is completely cleared is yet to be determined. As soon as the actual text of the FCC ruling of November 24th is released we will make a determination on whether or not we will continue forward with our appeal against the April 16th ruling.

KPFK equipment installations will be happening sometime late January or early February. This is a major project at the station and will be underway for the next several months.

The KPFK California Arts Council Training program will be initiated shortly after the first of the year. A job announcement has already gone out seeking a training coordinator for the program. Anyone interested in applying for the training program and any interested experienced applicants for the job of training coordinator should contact Tarabu Betserai, General Manager, at KPFK 3729 Cahuenga Blvd. West, North Hollywood, CA. 91604.

Lastly, KPFK will be co-sponsoring a one-day conference entitled "The State of the Four Estate: The U. S. Media and Foreign Policy" on Saturday, January 30th, from 9am til 5:30pm at Culver City High School Auditorium, 4401 Elenda Street in Culver City. The event is being co-sponsored with FAIR (Fairness for Accuracy in Reporting), the LA Weekly, and Midnight Special Bookstore, to provide a forum for an unprecedented collection of distinguished speakers who will address issues of media bias. An incredible list of speakers will be on hand including Noam Chomsky and Alexander Cockburn presenting keynote addresses, as well as Joli Stockwell, Carole Thompson and Dan Hallin among others sitting on workshops and panels. KPFK programmers Alan Fong and Ian Masters will moderate two of the panels during the day.

I hope that everyone had a happy holiday season and that we all can commit more effort towards peace in 1988, and we will look forward to seeing you on January 30th.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

OPEN EARS/OPEN MIND
"We who work in community radio have a responsibility and opportunity to be in the forefront of a strong counteroffensive against these attacks on culture and ideas. We cannot afford to close our eyes, our ears, our mouths to where the program of Resurgent America is leading us. Isn't it past time to begin fighting back?" - Melanie Collins, WRFG
Believing that the FCC's ruling on indecent language is not an isolated action against three or four radio stations, WRFG-Atlanta is rallying member stations of the National Federation of Community Broadcasters (NFCB) to participate in a week of programming on past and current attempts to censor, suppress or ban progressive or controversial artists, ideas and activists. January 1-7, KPFK will present several relevant programs, including:

January 1
Paul Robeson Day Throughout his blacklisted years, this singer/actor/activist could still be heard on Pacifica Radio.
January 5 7:30 PM
Bleep Bleep: Obscenity in America. Austin Strauss hosts a discussion on the philosophy of obscenity.
January 7 7:30 PM
Why Pacifica can't broadcast Howl-"New FCC rules have forced them to choose between literary liberty and economically debilitating wars with the FCC," says Allen Ginsberg, author of Howl, who is filing his own complaint against the FCC's language policies.

FRIDAY 1
